

ATTACHMENT B - BROAD MASTER PLAN – ELTHAM GATEWAY CONCEPT

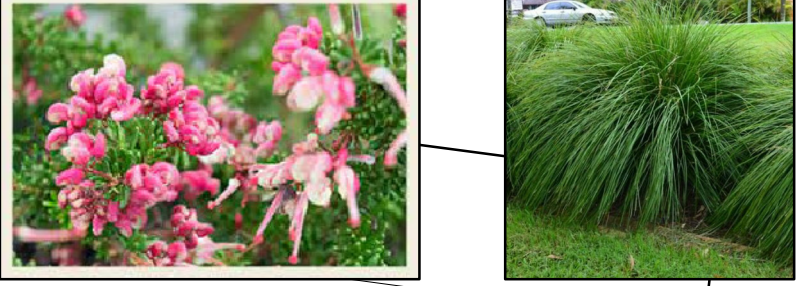

large boulders to be used as retaining walls on embankments, to prevent car movements and as ornamental within planting.

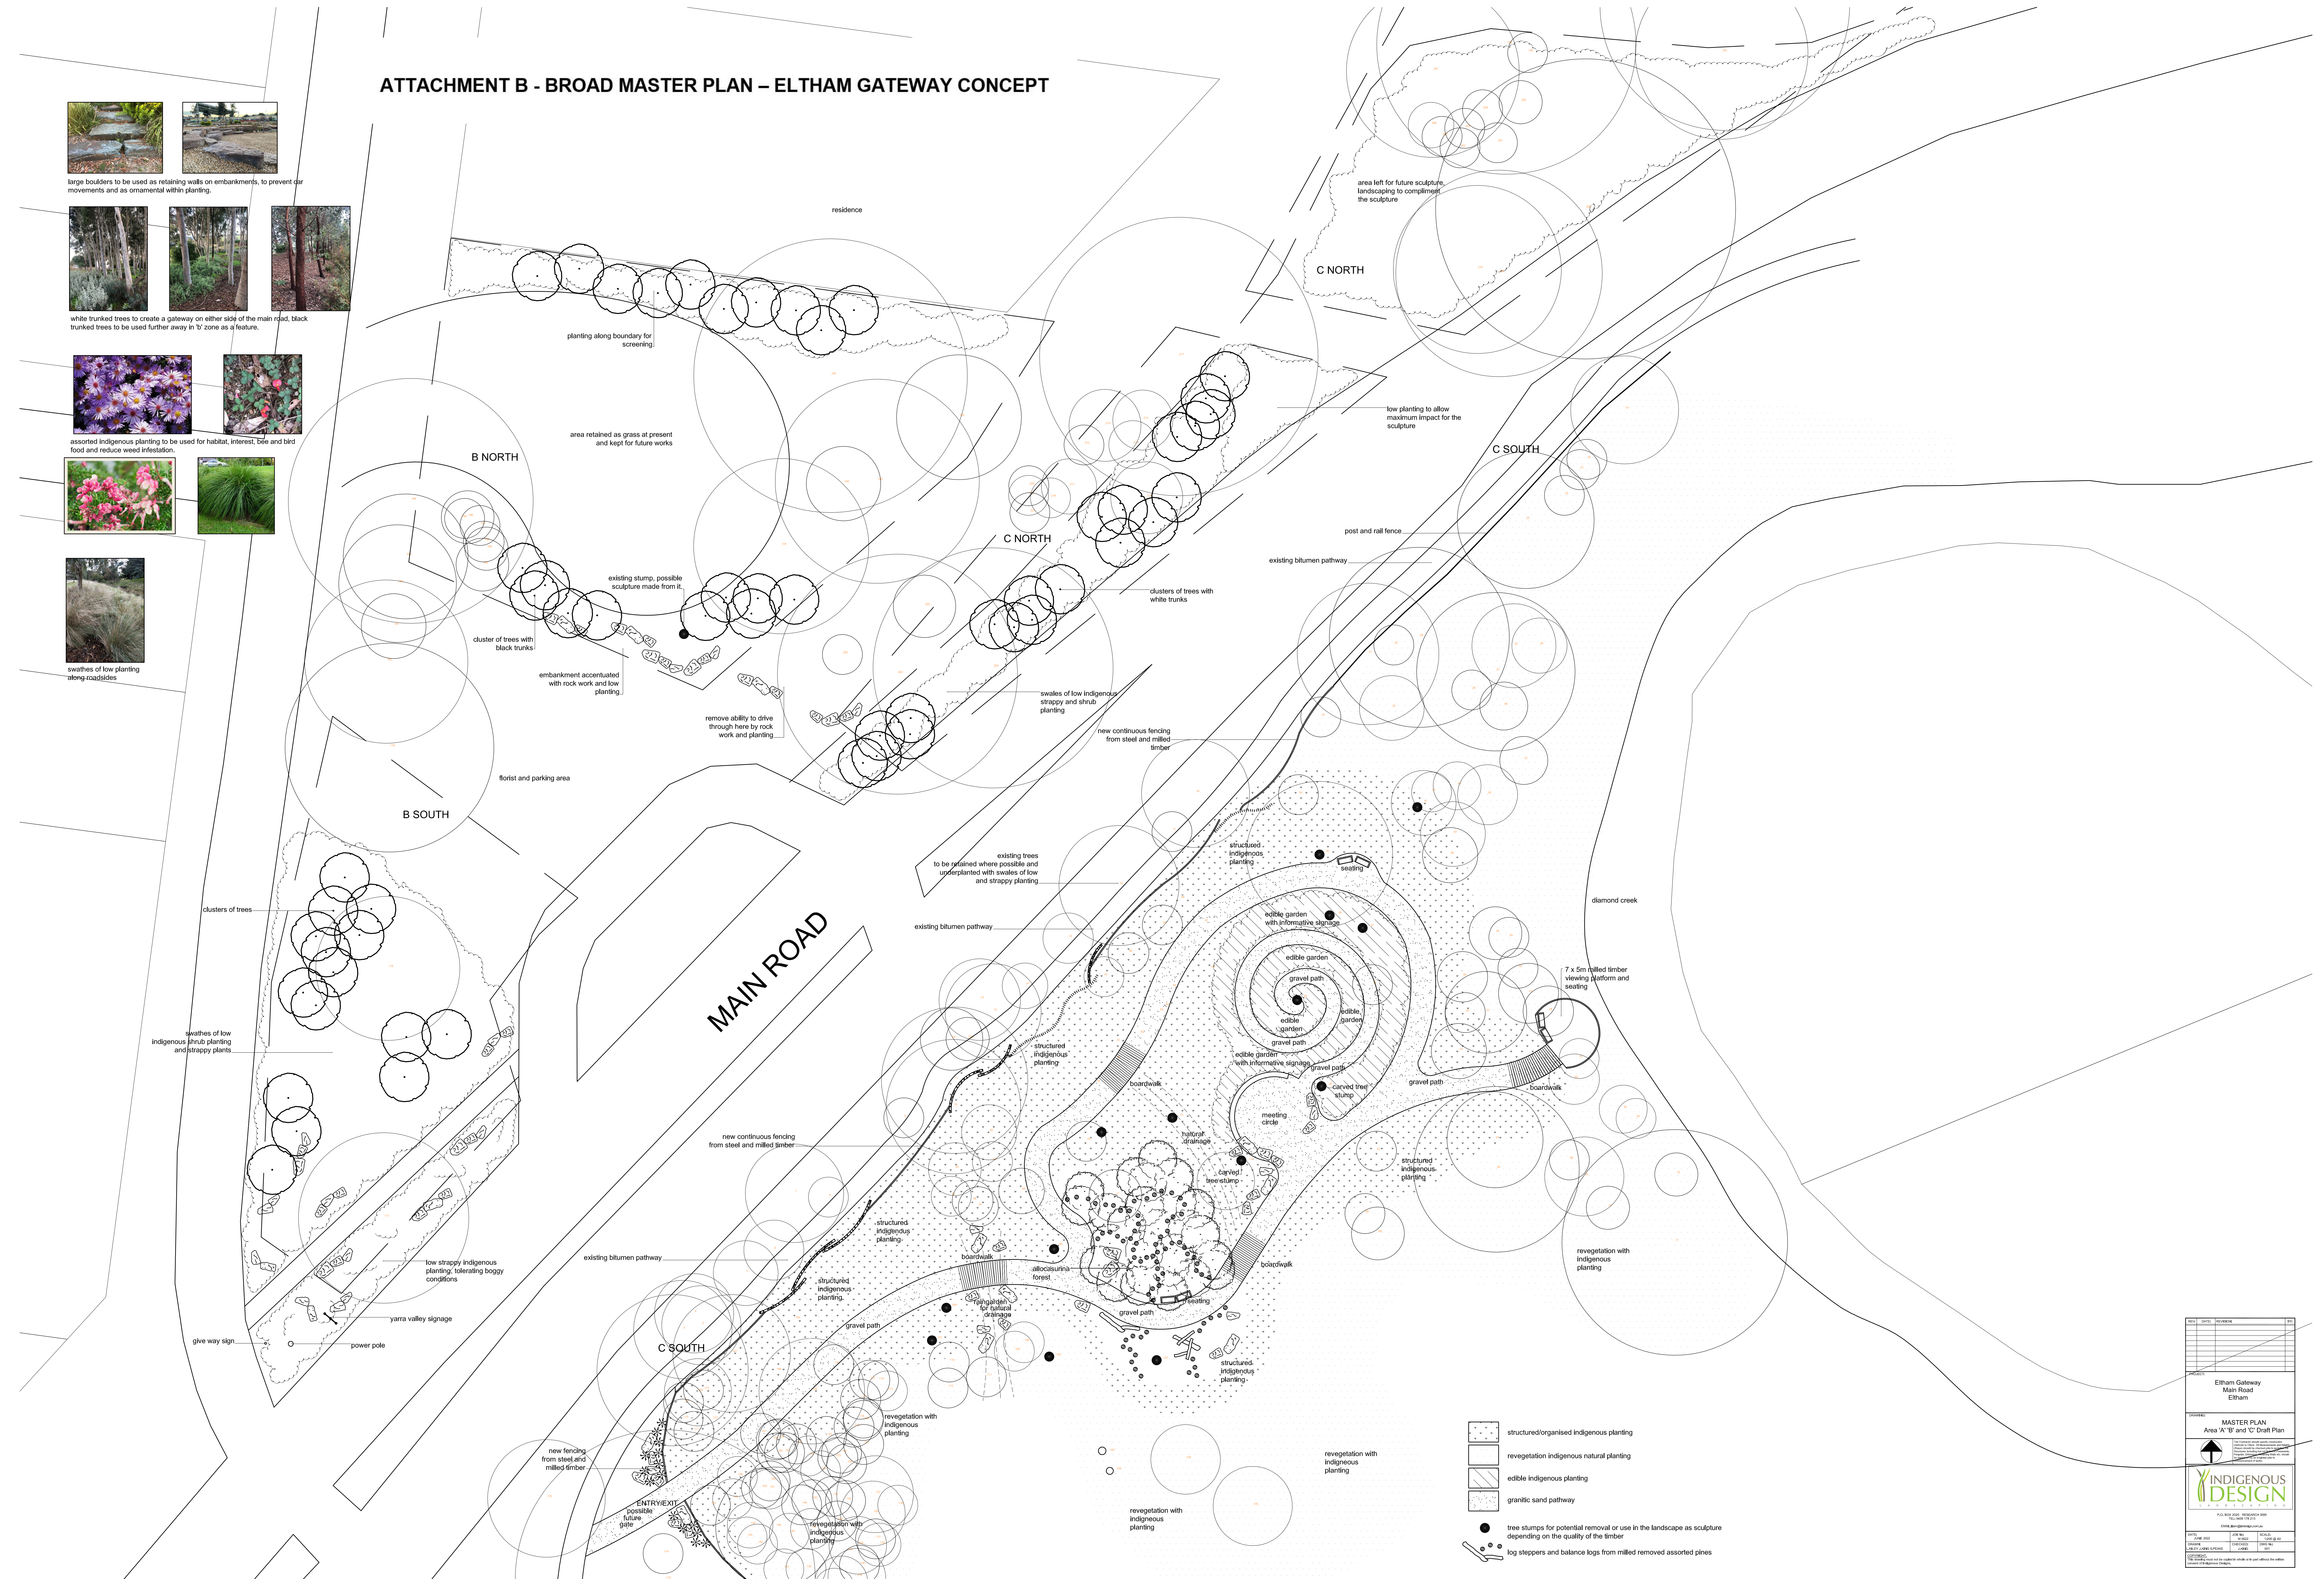

white trunked trees to create a gateway on either side of the main road, black trunked trees to be used further away in 'b' zone as a feature.

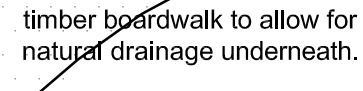

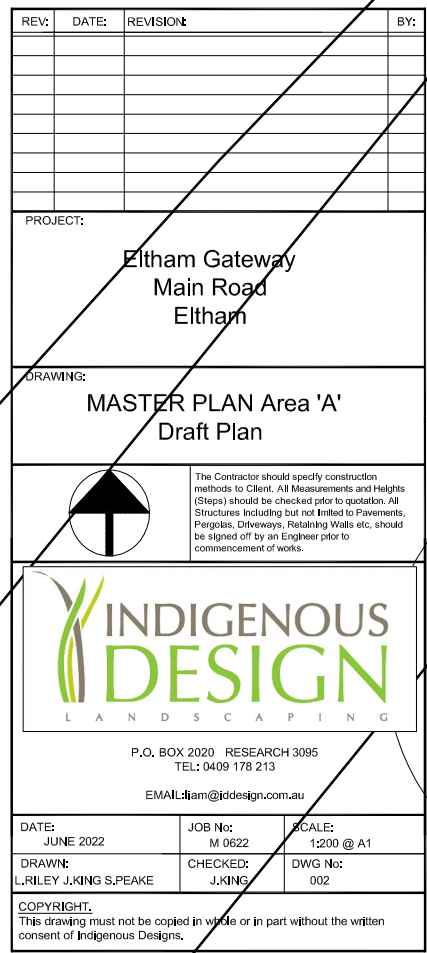

assorted indigenous planting to be used for habitat, interest, bee and bird food and reduce weed infestation.

swathes of low planting along roadsides

[illegible]

timber lookout/ viewing platform over Diamond Creek using milled timber from the site.

assorted pine trees to be carved into seating and other decorative sculptures.

ports, steel bollards, rock etc.

timber seating

assorted pine trees to be removed from site and milled for use on the project.

boundary fencing to be a suggestions of fencing to continuous fence using a combination of timber uprights, timber with steel ports, steel bollards, rock etc.

come from the reusing of the north of continuous fence the trees branches and milling the made from milled 125 x 125 trunks to create a natural effect costs

timber for fencing
Post and rail fence

locally sourced rock soften the edging c

used for fencing, play space gardens.

ting place seating and to play space to reuse balance beams, tee

trees to be removed by turning s and sculptured play items.

into log steppers,

~~allocasuarina forest to h seek area to explore.~~ have log steppers and bollard create a natural hide and areas to be incorporated the raingarden over to allow for natural play spaces such as rockwork and mounding of soil.

suggestions for depending on the

...to make use of the pine trees
...ity of the timber

more Trackside in carvings created

Ill Shire have received pine tree stumps

Kilmore Trackside in Mitchell Shire have recently had carvings created from pine tree stumps re

m
c

any ideas can cultural and en

incorporated in mental feel of E

area to reflect

many ideas can be incorporated into this area to reflect the cultural and environmental feel of Eltham.

structured/organised indigenous planting revegetation indigenous natural planting edible indigenous planting granitic sand pathway tree stumps for potential removal or use depending on the quality of the timber log steppers and balance logs from mill